++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry and mostly sunny, misty along the west coast.

Today:
A dry and sunny day for most, some early morning patchy cloud along the east Caithness coast. More extensive low cloud, mist and fog spreads north across the Hebrides. Warm again in the west. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Plenty of late evening sunshine then lengthy clear spells for most. However, low cloud, mist and fog will persist along the west coast giving some patchy light drizzle at times. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Saturday:
Low cloud, mist and some patchy light drizzle continue along the west coast and the Hebrides, spreading into northern Caithness and Sutherland later. Elsewhere warm dry and sunny. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Largely dry and settled with light winds. Generally a bit cloudier than recent days with the best of the sunshine in the west.
